Mayor Signs Seguin Birthday Celebration Proclamation Seguin Conservation Society's Seguin Birthday Party August 9

SEGUIN, Texas – Mayor Don Keil has proclaimed August 9, 2014 as a day of celebration and recognition of Seguin's 176th birthday. The proclamation will be officially presented to the Seguin Conservation Society at its upcoming Seguin Birthday Party.

"The Seguin Conservation Society has more than 400 members who work diligently to preserve and promote Seguin's rich history," Mayor Keil said in the proclamation. "It's time to celebrate and recognize the many historical events that have helped create the foundation for the successful community that Seguin has become."

The Seguin Conservation Society is hosting its annual Seguin Birthday Party on August 9, beginning at 5:30 p.m. at Seguin's First Church on Live Oak Street. The event includes live entertainment and a homemade ice cream contest. Hamburgers, hot dogs and refreshments will be available for sale. Heritage Village will also be open during the event.

About the City of Seguin

Seguin, Texas is located along Interstate 10, about 35 miles east of San Antonio. Seguin is big enough to boast a top-rated university and a state-of-the-art hospital. More than 25,000 residents enjoy a range of cultural, recreational, and employment opportunities. Seguin's robust diversified economy features a steelmaker, a manufacturer of automotive parts and plants making roadside mowing equipment and building materials. In 2009, Seguin was proud to be selected by Caterpillar as the site of a major new engine manufacturing facility.
